JESH OVERSEAS SOLUTION

we are JESH

With over 3 decades of experience in handling Overseas Manpower requirements for clients across the globe, we are one of the leading enterprises in South India. Mr. A.J. Rajendran, Founder & Managing Director of JESH Overseas Solution is a doyen in the industry. His acumen for perfect understanding of client requirements have been one of his key strengths. His global clientele especially in the Middle & Far East have immense trust in his work owing to his achievements.

JESH with a wonderful team of experienced personnel handling clients strive to offer nothing short of the best when it comes to meeting client requirements.

Across countries, industries, verticals and levels of employment, the track record and credentials are sheer reflection of the capabilities of JESH.

In the coming years, JESH promises to be a name to reckon in the Recruitment Services industry.

we deliver on promises

At JESH, manpower requirements are not orders or jobs. They are promises kept. For the client and the candidate. Every requirement & position is taken with seriousness and professionalism to the utmost level.

Time, Cost efficiency, Convenience and Ease of operations are core areas of concentration for JESH.

JESH see themselves as an extended arm of the Client's recruitment wing. Manpower requirements are not therefore looked at as a one-time affair but as an ongoing process to enrich and expand opportunities at hand. Constant monitoring, feedback mechanism and review of status systems are all in place only for JESH to improve upon perfection.

mobilization

One of our biggest strengths is Mobilization. We pride ourselves in having almost 100% mobilization of selected candidates on every assignment, even for recruitments with short schedule. This is mainly due to our sheer understanding and process of screening the candidates right from the word go.

we pride ourselves in success

JESH is proud to serve prestigious & reputed clients from across the world. In the past, Mr. A.J. Rajendran has personally handled thousands of manpower requirements for mega projects across verticals and industries. Clients swear by him due to his sheer commitment to work & diligent execution of the same.

JESH's team works with great amount of care, concern and technical expertise to ensure that perfect manpower solutions are provided to clients. JESH's work & clientele speak for the capabilities, irrespective of size.

we gift opportunities

JESH prides itself in identifying the right avenues & opportunities for clients & candidates.

One never knows where the best of Skill & Talent stem from. Reason why JESH leaves no stone unturned when it comes to sourcing Manpower for its clients. JESH goes far & wide to regions from all directions and corners of India to source manpower for its global clientele.

And to make things easier operationally for clients & candidates, JESH organizes for one-to-one, group interviews and sessions for clients and candidates at various locations in India. Be it Metros or even Tier 2 & Small Towns, it's as good as having one organized in the backyard.

home turf & away

When it comes to hiring specialists for industries & verticals, we focus on regions from where specific talent pool can be sourced. This gives us a clear edge in terms of scouting the right talent and saving on cost of operations of interview locations, travel time and closure.

we see the future

The JESH Mission

- To seek opportunities.
- To provide service par excellence.
- To be the most preferred Recruitment Partner for clients.
- To constantly innovate, update & emerge as superior service providers in Manpower Solution space across the world.
- To enrich the process for clients beyond comfort levels to luxury.

The JESH Quality Policy

JESH focuses on the quality of recruited personnel as well as the experience of the client on the whole. JESH strives to set benchmarks of recruitment from both ends.

JESH believes in being:

- Futuristic than state-of-the-art
- Competitive than cheap
- Inclusive than advisory
- Preferred than chosen

Ergo, efforts of JESH, shall be driven by these guidelines and therefore be smooth, process driven, goal oriented and guaranteeing convenience beyond satisfaction.
